ACTION ON GUBERNATORIAL VETOS

House Enrolled Act 1123

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

By the authority vested in me as governor of the State of Indiana pursuant to the provisions of Article 5, Section 14, of the Constitution of the State of Indiana, I do hereby veto House Enrolled Act No. 1123 (HEA1123), enacted during the regular session of the 122nd General Assembly.

I am vetoing HEA 1123 because I firmly believe a central part of this bill is unconstitutional. The legislation impermissibly attempts to give the General Assembly the ability to call itself into a special session, thereby usurping a power given exclusively to the governor under Article 4, Section 9 of the Indiana Constitution. As such, it seeks to accomplish that which the Indiana Constitution clearly prohibits.

This part of the bill also violates the separation of powers principle enshrined in Article 3, Section 1, of the Indiana Constitution because it constitutes a legislative encroachment on the governor's power as head of the executive branch. In addition, well-established Indiana case law zealously protects each branch of state government from intrusion by another.

If HEA 1123 becomes law and can be used by the General Assembly, it will create significant uncertainty and solidify the controversy over its constitutionality. This is a matter of immediate and substantial public interest. In addition, any legislative actions taken during an unconstitutional special session will be void and thus open and subject to legal challenges to set them aside. Government should serve as a steady foundation during a time of crisis. Avoidable legal challenges during a state of emergency will only serve to be disruptive to our state.

I do want to be clear that I support efforts to increase partnership and collaboration between the legislative and executive branches during states of emergency. I will remain willing to work with the General Assembly to address their concerns to represent our shared constituents during declared states of emergency.

Date: April 9, 2021

Sincerely,
Eric J Holcomb
Governor

The Speaker handed down House Enrolled Act 1123, passed by the Second Regular Session of the 121st General Assembly.

AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning public safety.

The merits of House Enrolled Act 1123 and the Governor's veto were explained. The question was, Shall House Enrolled Act 1123 pass, the Governor's veto notwithstanding?

Roll Call 449: yeas 59, nays 26. The Governor's veto was overridden.

Whereas, Brumm's Bloomin' Barn has expanded over the years to now occupy 5,200 square feet, becoming a landmark at the corner of W. 45th Street and Spring Street in Highland, Indiana;

Whereas, During their 50 years of service, the Brumms' slogan was "quality and service aren't expensive, they are priceless", earning Brumm's Bloomin' Barn many years of support from the community, and the business has been voted "Best in Region" by The Times of Northwest Indiana readers;

Whereas, Brumm's Bloomin' Barn is popular not only for its floral arrangements and gifts, but also for its Christmas decorations. Many families come in with their children for the opportunity to take pictures;
